With regard to this event and with my signature below I accept, understand, agree, warrant and covenant as follows:

I will hold without fault the Wilderness Trekkers Inc.; a non-profit outdoors club; its officers, members, instructors, volunteers, and event host(s) defined as the "organization" in the case of injury, accident, or damage of any kind, and for any acts, or omissions resulting from the organization's own negligence, before, during or after any event. I understand that outdoor recreational activities are potentially dangerous and involve certain inherent risks. I understand that injury, physical disability, or death may occur. I understand that I participate in the organization activities at my own risk.

I claim to be in good health to meet the physical challenges of this event. I have assessed my own physical health, capabilities, and limitations and the physical requirements of this event prior to deciding to participate. I understand that outdoor conditions and weather may change and that these changes may negatively affect my physical capabilities and the physical requirements and difficulty level of the event. If I should choose to cease to participate in the event as planned, I assume all risks inherent in my decision to leave. I further recognize that safety is my personal responsibility. I agree to cooperate in keeping the Wilderness Trekkers event safe, and I agree to comply with the stated and customary terms and conditions of participation and membership. I agree to hold the organization harmless; owners and lessors of premises on which activities take place harmless; and indemnify the organization for all costs, judgments, and awards that may be claimed including the cost to defend such claims brought by myself or my personal representatives, assigns, heirs and next of kin. I understand that I have given up substantial rights by signing this release.
